MadLab's small gallery space frequently plays host to first-time shows by artists fresh out of school. This month, the multi-use space looks back with

The Marc & Dan Show, works by two Ohio-based artists who debuted at MadLab before moving on to bigger things. Included are bubble-bordered thoughts from funny-strange characters by Dan Gerdeman, a Bowling Green grad who now molds minds as an art teacher at Hilliard Davidson High School (he won Teacher of the Year for 2005-2006); and imagined landscapes in dense yet wispy pen markings by Marc Lincewicz, an alum of CCAD and, since his first MadLab appearance, has had a show in the Short North. The artists will be on hand to meet and greet during an opening reception on Saturday, May 5, from 5-7 p.m.
